About the Book

Esme lives with her grandparents on the uppermost floor of the topmost best building. It's her birthday. Mimi and Pipo gave her a beautiful guitar. But they didn't plan a birthday party.

No problem! Esme is great at problem solving. With the help of her cat, El Toro, and a LOT of help from her neighbors in the topmost best building, Esme gets the birthday party of her dreams.

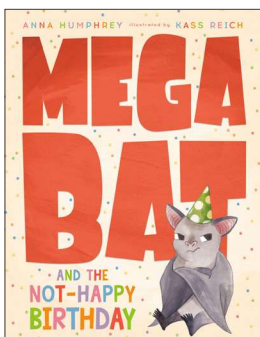

Keep the Conversation Going

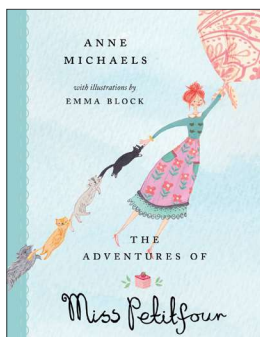

Here are some ideas, activities and questions to consider after you've read the book.

- What is your favorite birthday cake or dessert? Look up a recipe, then follow the ingredients and steps to make yourself a treat. Don't forget to ask an adult to help you in the kitchen!
- Imagine the best piñata ever! What shape is it? What would you fill it with?
- What are your favorite games to play at parties? Why are they your favorites? Create a list of games you would like to play at your next party.
